This Art Moderne Style commercial building was built by Dennis and Maude Winchester in 1947 to serve as the Winchester Auto Store. The original curved walls of decorative glass block flanking the corner entry create an impressive entrance point for the recently renovated structure, which now serves as the new home of Park Stanley Wilcox Architects.

Designed by Charles Thompson and constructed in 1910, St. Joseph's Home was built under the direction of the Catholic Diocese of Little Rock and Bishop Jove Bapstin Murphy. The orphanage grew to house and school around 300 children by 1914. St. Joseph's Home was managed by the Benedictine Sisters of St. Scholastica Monastery in Fort Smith who taught and oversaw the children, and with the help of volunteers, maintained the surrounding farm and orchard.

Star City, Lincoln County
Meet at 11 am
Star City Historic Square, corner of South Ave St. and West Bradley St.

Star City was created to serve as the county seat of newly created Lincoln County in 1871. By 1876, the town had about 300 residents and the economy was dependent on nearby timber and cotton production. Today, agriculture as well as manufacturing and outdoor recreation all contribute to the local economy. The Star City Commercial Historic District features buildings from 1886 through 1928.

- Originally constructed in 1894, with later alterations, the Junction Bridge was operated by the Union Pacific Railroad to carry trains across the Arkansas River until 1924. In 2006, the bridge was adapted into a bike and pedestrian bridge, connecting the Little Rock River Market to North Little Rock’s Verizon Arena. We will meet at the foot of the bridge on the Little Rock (South) side of the Arkansas River.
