

Arts on Tour 2023-2024 Roster Artist Application

Application deadline is Friday, October 21, 2022

The Arkansas Arts Council invites performing and visual artists or art groups to apply for the 2023-2024 Arkansas Arts on Tour (AOT) Roster. Updated each year on the Arkansas Arts Council website www.arkansasarts.org, the AOT Roster lists a broad spectrum of Arkansas' finest solo and ensemble performers, individual visual artists and prepared art exhibitions ready for touring within our state or online virtual presentations. The online AOT listing facilitates the booking process for arts organizations, festival and event planners, schools, civic organizations and government entities interested in contracting with the artists.

The Arts on Tour program is designed to reimburse presenters who showcase Arkansas artists listed on the Roster. It is the artist's responsibility to generate bookings, but an endorsement by the Arkansas Arts Council helps artists market their work. When an AOT artist negotiates a contract with a presenter, the Arkansas Arts Council typically will subsidize 40% of the cost of the event as long as funds are available.

New Arts on Tour artists are selected each year through an audition/interview process that involves an informal presentation and a discussion of marketing and promotional plans with panel members. Zoom interviews for the 2023-2024 AOT Roster will be scheduled for a later date. Although live demonstrations are preferred, if possible, online links or images are also acceptable as performance or visual demonstrations. Applicants will be provided with further information about the review format.

The fee range requested on the application should include both an artist's contract fee (which may be all-inclusive) and any additional expenses not normally included in the artist fee which the presenter will be expected to cover, such as special technical costs or reimbursements for extra travel and lodging. The maximum indicated fee(s) should cover all expected costs involved with performing/exhibiting anywhere in Arkansas. A performer/exhibitor may charge any amount they feel reasonable, but the Arkansas Arts Council will only subsidize 40% of the contract cost, up to a maximum of $2,000 a year per presenter. The stated roster price or fee range needs to include the most the artist or group would charge for a booking in Arkansas. A Roster artist can always negotiate a lesser price with a presenter to obtain a booking. In that case, the lower, negotiated amount will be used for calculating the Arts Council's subsidy to the presenter, not the listed AOT Roster amount.

The Arkansas Arts Council reserves the right to determine the suitability of the scope or nature of the presentation proposed by an applicant. For additional information, contact Matt Boyce at 501-324-9769. To be eligible for the Arts on Tour program, a performing/visual artist or group must:

- Maintain a primary residency in Arkansas or must have an Arkansas-based contact.
- Have presented concerts, exhibitions, programs or lecture demonstrations in locations away from their home location at least twice in the previous year; exhibitions must have been presented in a formal gallery space. The listed activities can be located out of state.
