MARVELOUS MUSEUMS

OLD STATE HOUSE MUSEUM:

Discover the Old State House Museum, Arkansas' original state capitol and the oldest standing capitol west of the Mississippi. Nestled on the Arkansas River, this historic site has witnessed key events since 1833 and now houses fascinating exhibits and collections.

MOSAIC TEMPLARS CULTURAL CENTER:

Explore the rich history of the Black experience in Arkansas at the state's flagship African American history museum. Featuring a newly-renovated permanent gallery and immersive exhibits, it's filled with stirring stories of those who worked for a better and more equal world.

HISTORIC ARKANSAS MUSEUM:

Located in Little Rock, the museum preserves many of Central Arkansas' oldest and most historic structures, offers curated exhibits, blacksmith forge tours and an extensive knife gallery.

GOOD FOOD, GOOD TIMES

FISH AND FRIED PIES:

Burge's Hickory Smoked Turkeys and Hams of Little Rock, a 2019 Food Hall of Fame inductee, is known for its meats, but surprisingly, has some of the best fish and pies in town. Visit Burge's to taste and experience the old-school vibe.

KICK IT WITH K HALL:

K Hall & Sons Produce, a several year finalist for the Food Hall of Fame, is the place to be. K Hall & Sons is a longstanding business on Wright Avenue in the Central High School Neighborhood Historic District of Little Rock, serving great burgers, fish, and more to your liking. Famous for their punch, you will be sure to quench your thirst!

COMMUNITY FOR ALL:

Visit the 2023 People's Choice Winner Community Bakery! Community Bakery was started in 1947 by Ralph Hinson in North Little Rock and has been booming ever since! Experience delicious treats and food like no other in their two Little Rock locations.
